August 2-6
9:00am-3:00pm

A one-week introduction to the wonderful world of theatre for young students. In this fun-filled program, theatre professionals pay close attention to the individual needs of each child, encouraging his or her sense of cooperation, listening skills, and self-esteem. Each day is filled with theatre games, creative play, storytelling, music, movement, and art projects. Family and friends are invited to an informal presentation of the students' work at the end of the week on Friday, August 6th!

Two-Week Performance Seminar

Students Entering Grades 4-5

From the page to the stage in just two weeks! Working with a script, we focus on ensemble work, concentration, discipline, and the steps involved in putting on a play. Morning classes include script work, improvisation, theatre games, movement, music, and more. In the afternoon, we rehearse, design, and create our set and costumes for the Friday, July 16th production - to which everyone is invited!

This includes audition technique, warm-ups, cool downs, choosing material and working on solos and duets. Students will rehearse dynamic group numbers from popular musicals, which they will perform for family and friends on Friday, July 9th.

Parents: Classes start promptly at the times indicated. Please have your student at the facility 10 minutes prior to the start of their class. Your student must be picked up within 10 minutes of the conclusion of their class. Please pack daily snacks (two breaks), drinks, and lunch for your child.

Improvational Theatre Week

Students Entering Grades 6-8

#6IMP - $360

July 12-16
9:00am-3:00pm

Thinking on your feet, making strong choices, and working as an ensemble: these are the rules of improvisation. Improvisational Theatre is a unique form of acting in which there are no scripts. Actors deal with a particular situation in the moment, without planning what will happen ahead of time. Once students learn the basics of improvisation, they can create funny, entertaining, and interesting pieces of theatre. Family and friends are invited to see the results in an informal improv show on Friday, July 16th.

#6PS - $675

July 19-July 30
9:00am-4:00pm
